EOI DOCUMENT NO. GAIL/NOIDA/R&D/IPR CONSULTANT ENLISTMENT/2026

1. INTRODUCTION

GAIL (India) Limited ("GAIL") is India's leading Natural Gas Company with presence along the entire natural gas value chain comprising Exploration & Production, LNG imports, Gas Transmission & Marketing, Gas Processing, Petrochemicals, LPG Transmission and City Gas Distribution. GAIL is listed on the National Stock Exchange of India, the Bombay Stock Exchange and the London Stock Exchange (in the form of GDRs) with the market capitalization of more than Rs. 50,000 crores.

For additional information on GAIL, please visit <https://www.gailonline.com>

2. BRIEF ABOUT EOI

GAIL is carrying out various R&D projects in collaboration with premier academic institutes/CSIR labs across the country related to identified various thrust areas in its existing and future businesses. GAIL invites R&D Proposals from various Engineering Institutes and CSIR Laboratories in these Thrust Areas. The R&D Proposals are screened for their suitability and relevance to GAIL and the selected R&D Proposals are pursued. At present, GAIL is pursuing over 20 R&D projects and completed 50 R&D projects in its various Business Areas. The ongoing R&D Projects are at various stages of execution and the options to secure IPR are being evaluated at different stages.

3. SCOPE OF WORK

GAIL intends to engage a Firm for providing consultancy services to help in its quest for securing IPR for its on-going as well as new R&D Projects. The Scope of Work (SOW) of the Consultant, inter alia, include the following:

i) Review of R&D project proposals at selection stage for patentability/prior art search:

GAIL shall provide a brief synopsis of the new R&D Project Proposals. This shall include the objective, technology details, deliverables, work plan, etc. The Consultant firm shall gather information on the on-going R&D Activities on the subject Area/Topic. This will involve gathering information on (i) Companies/Institutes engaged in R&D in this subject Area/Topic, (ii) No. of Patents being filed, (iii) Quantum of publications etc.

This Patentability Search Analysis shall help GAIL to know the importance being attached to this R&D subject by other Companies / Institutions. This will also help in analyzing the possibility of getting IPR in the subject Area by ascertaining the Research potential.

ii) Review of awarded R&D projects for patentability/prior art search

GAIL shall provide brief synopsis of the ongoing R&D Project(s). This shall include the objective, work plan, methodology, details of work carried out and deliverables. The Consultant firm shall carry out an exhaustive Prior Art / Novelty Search to ascertain the Patents - Granted and Applied in the relevant Area. This shall include both Indian and International Patent Search. The Consultant firm shall scan the database of Indian Patent Office (IPO), Thomson Innovation, Espacenet, USPTO, European Patent Office (EPO), WIPO, Clarivate & Non-patent databases like IEEE explore, SCIRUS, Scopus, Google Scholar, Google Internet based Search and any other relevant database. The Consultant firm shall also study the relevant Patents in detail to understand the specific Inventions that have been patented. The Consultant firm shall analyse the above w.r.t. the work being carried out in GAIL's Project and identify the gaps available in which IPR could be secured.

iii) Review of IP Application

IP Protection in GAIL's Projects is normally kept in the scope of the partnering Institute/lab carrying out the R&D work. The Principal Investigator (PI) carrying out the R&D work shall prepare a technical write-up for its Patent Attorney for preparing the IP Application. Such technical write-up shall contain information on Prior Art, Work carried out in the Project, Results Achieved and the Claims towards Novelty. The Institute's Patent Attorney shall prepare a draft IP Application based upon the technical write-up provided by its faculty. GAIL shall provide a copy of the above draft IP application also to the Consultant firm. The Consultant firm shall carry out a thorough review of the draft IP Application to ensure that it properly highlights the essential elements of the inventions and makes a fit Case for establishing the Novelty. The Consultant firm shall maintain a close coordination with the respective scientists/faculties and may also require traveling to the respective Institute/lab in India for detailed discussions.

All the parts of the IP Application viz. specifications, claims, drawings etc. shall be reviewed by consultant firm. The following shall be considered and reviewed in detail:

- a. The Claims should properly cover the inventions, un-desirable claims are not made, all possible uses of the invention are mentioned, and the claims are not limiting the invention.
- b. The specifications should provide proper and detailed description of all the steps/elements of the Invention.
- c. The drawings provide proper illustration of the procedure, methodology, experimental set-up etc. as is required for providing due clarity.

iv) Technology / Inventor search:

GAIL shall provide a specific Technology area of interest or an Inventor's name for extensive search to be carried out to find the Patents/prior art available in the specific technology or inventor. The Consultant firm shall gather information on the specific technology/inventor. This will involve gathering information on (i) Companies/Institutes/Labs engaged in R&D in this subject Area/Topic, (ii) No. of Patents being filed, (iii) Quantum of publications, conference proceedings etc.

This search analysis shall help GAIL to know the importance being attached to the R&D subject by other Companies / Institutions/Labs. This will also help in analyzing the possibility of pursuing Research in the subject Area by ascertaining the Research potential.

v) Services towards the Indian Patent filing and securing for GAIL

Scope of work includes tracking GAIL's awarded and applied patents, Copyrights, design patents and submit a detailed report on quarterly basis to GAIL on the status
