

GAIL presents photography competition on environmental awareness

As part of its commitment towards raising awareness for sustainable and environment friendly lifestyle, GAIL has partnered for a unique & exciting photography competition 'The Earth We Share' which focuses on environment & biodiversity. GAIL has been pursuing sustainable practices to generate long-term value by understanding and balancing ecological, economic, and social environment. GAIL strives to play an important role in transitioning from polluting fuels to cleaner energies for greener and cleaner tomorrow.